Within the twenty-one day period, the claimant, by written motion, may request an extension of time in which to respond to the investigation report, provided that a reason is set forth for the extension. If an extension is granted, the clerk shall set a date for the filing of the response to the investigation report.

(B) Power of the clerk. In administrative determinations, the clerk or deputy clerk has the same power as a judge of the Court of Claims to regulate all proceedings. ## RULE 8. Pretrial conference and procedure

(A) Pretrial conference; Case management conference. In accordance with Civil Rule 16, the court may, on its own motion or at the request of a party, fix a date and place for a formal pretrial conference and one or more informal pretrial status conferences. The court may also, on its own motion or at the request of a party, fix a date and place for an early case management conference at which the parties shall be prepared to establish a binding case management schedule.

(B) Pretrial statement. Not less than seven days prior to the date of the formal pretrial conference, all parties shall file with the clerk and serve upon all other parties appearing in the action, a pretrial statement which:

(1) Informs the court in detail of the factual and legal issues which the case presents;

(2) Sets forth the party's position on legal issues, including any significant evidentiary questions, and the authorities in support thereof;

(3) Includes a list of all witnesses expected to testify;

(4) Includes a list of all exhibits which are to be introduced in evidence.

(C) Conference procedure. Trial attorneys shall be prepared at the pretrial conference and shall have full authorization to negotiate a settlement from the parties they represent. Upon the request of a trial attorney or upon its own motion, the court may order the parties or their respective sureties, indemnitors or insurers to be present at the pretrial conference.

(D) Pretrial order. The court may, and at the request of a party, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a written order which recites the action taken at the pretrial conference. The court shall enter the order and submit copies to the parties. The order, subject to Civil Rule 60(A), shall control the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the trial to prevent manifest injustice.

(E) Expert witnesses. All parties shall exchange with all other parties, in advance of the trial, written reports of expert witnesses expected to testify. The parties shall submit expert reports in accordance with the schedule established by the court.

A party may not call an expert witness to testify unless a written report has been procured from said witness. It is the party's responsibility to take reasonable measures, including the procurement of supplemental reports, to ensure that each such report adequately sets forth the expert's opinion. However, unless good cause is shown, all supplemental reports must be supplied no later than thirty days prior to trial. The report of an expert must reflect the expert's opinions as to each issue on which the expert will testify. An expert will not be permitted to testify or provide opinions on issues not raised in the expert's report.

All experts must submit reports. If a party is unable to obtain a written report from an expert, the party must demonstrate that a good faith effort was made to obtain the report and must advise the court and the opposing party of the name and address of the expert, the subject of the expert's expertise together with the expert's qualifications and a detailed summary of the expert's testimony. In the event the expert witness is a treating physician, the court shall have the discretion to determine whether the hospital and/or office records of that physician's treatment which have been produced satisfy the requirements of a written report. The court shall have the power to nevertheless exclude testimony of the expert if good cause is not demonstrated.

If the court finds that good cause exists for the non-production of an expert's report, the court shall assess costs of the discovery deposition of the noncomplying expert against the party offering the testimony of the expert unless, by motions, the court determines such payment would result in manifest injustice. These costs may include the expert's fee, the court reporter's charges and travel costs.

If the court finds that good cause exists for the non-production of a report from a treating physician, the court shall assess costs of the discovery deposition of the physician equally between the plaintiff and the party or parties seeking discovery of the expert. These costs may include the physician's fee, the court reporter's charges and travel costs.

(F) Failure to comply. The sanctions stated in Civil Rule 37(B)(1) may be assessed for failure to timely comply with this rule.

A settlement agreement shall be signed by the claimant and the director or other administrative chief, or the governing body, of any department, board, office, commission, agency, institution, or other instrumentality of the state named as defendant in the action. The settlement agreement shall be approved by the attorney general and filed with the clerk for review by the court.

(B) Review by the court. The court shall review the settlement agreement. If the court concurs with the terms of the settlement agreement, it shall approve and journalize the agreement. If the settlement agreement is not approved, the court may require the claimant and the state to reconsider the agreement. If the court does not approve the reconsidered agreement, the court shall assign the claim for trial.

The clerk may order the use of any method of recording authorized by this rule.

(C) Payment. The party ordering the transcript of proceedings, or a copy thereof, shall pay the court reporter or reporting service the expense of such service. The reporter or the court reporting service shall not prepare transcripts of proceedings or copies thereof until satisfactory payment arrangements have been made.

(D) Custody; Disposition of recordings. Electronically recorded transcripts of proceedings shall be retained by the clerk at the conclusion of the trial or hearing. Electronically recorded transcripts of the proceedings shall be maintained by the clerk until the case is finally determined. The clerk, upon order by the court, may dispose of an electronically recorded transcript of proceedings after the expiration of three years from the conclusion of all proceedings in the action or claim.

(E) Inspection of electronically recorded transcripts of proceedings. In lieu of requesting a copy of an electronically recorded transcript of proceedings, or a portion thereof, a party may view or hear the transcript of proceedings on file with the clerk.

(F) Video recorded testimony and depositions. If video recorded testimony or video recorded depositions are used, the parties shall comply with the provisions of Rule 13 of the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio. If a trial or hearing in the action is to be held at a location other than the address stated in Rule 2 of these rules or if a motion to change the situs of the trial or hearing is pending, the party intending to use a video recording shall disclose that fact when contacting the clerk's office to determine the appropriate format.

(G) Disposition of Materials Submitted Under Seal. Case materials ordered restricted from public access or information in materials ordered redacted shall not be available for public access and shall be maintained separately in the case file, pursuant to Sup. R. 45. Such materials shall be maintained in a sealed envelope with a copy of the court order restricting access affixed to the envelope.

RULE 12. Trial scheduling

(A) Advancement for trial. A motion may be addressed to the court to advance a case for trial stating the reason or reasons.

(B) Change of trial date. Any motion to modify the trial date shall be in writing. The motion will not be granted unless it is supported by a showing of good cause. A certificate of service shall be filed with the motion which shall be served upon all parties pursuant to Civil Rule 5. The court may sua sponte change the trial date upon reasonable notice to all parties.

(C) Conflict of trial assignment dates. When a continuance of a trial is requested for the reason that counsel is scheduled to appear in another case assigned for trial on the same date in another court of this state, the case which was first set for trial shall have priority and shall be tried on the date assigned.

RULE 13. Court files and papers

Court papers, files of the court, or parts thereof shall not be removed from the custody of the clerk without the consent of the clerk.

RULE 14. Trial procedures

(A) Engaged counsel. If a particular attorney has such a number of actions pending in the Court of Claims that the disposition of the actions is unduly delayed, the court may require the attorney to provide a substitute trial attorney. If the original attorney fails to provide a substitute trial attorney, the court may remove the attorney from the action.

(B) Examination of witnesses. At a trial or hearing where witnesses are called, only one attorney for each party may examine or cross-examine a witness unless otherwise permitted by the court.

RULE 15. Review of caseload

(A) Review of pending cases. The clerk shall from time to time review all causes pending in the court. In causes in which no proceedings have been undertaken within six months of the date of commencement, the court may give written notice to all counsel of record, or to a party who is not represented by counsel, that the cause will be dismissed at a time certain unless before that time has expired good cause is shown that the cause should remain pending.

(B) Review of newly filed complaints. The clerk shall review newly filed complaints to determine whether a state defendant is correctly identified or a complaint names as defendant a non-state party over which the Court of Claims has no jurisdiction. The clerk may, prior to the issuance of summons, refer the complaint to a judge of the Court of Claims for review and, if necessary, for the issuance of an appropriate order. No unnecessary delay in processing complaints shall ensue due to this process. The ultimate responsibility for correctly designating an appropriate defendant and filing a complaint which is free from error or ambiguity remains with the party filing the complaint. The failure of the clerk, deputy clerk, or court to act under this rule does not alter that responsibility.

(C) Information concerning cases, claims based on essentially the same facts. Upon the filing of an original complaint, the clerk shall serve a request for information about connected cases as “request for information” upon the plaintiff’s attorney or upon the plaintiff where plaintiff has no attorney. This division (C) does not apply to actions which must be determined administratively in accordance with R.C. 2743.10. The request for information shall, among other things, require the plaintiff to state whether a case, claim, application, etc., based on essentially the same facts as the complaint or petition for removal filed in the Court of Claims, is pending in any court or any bureau, board, commission or agency. The clerk shall draft the request for information form and all necessary instructions for such form.

The plaintiff’s attorney or the plaintiff shall complete the request for information form and file it with the court within twenty-eight days after the date the form was mailed by the clerk. The plaintiff’s attorney or the plaintiff shall serve a copy of the completed form upon the opposing counsel and all other parties pursuant to Civil Rule 5. All other parties have the continuing duty to immediately inform the court in writing where the information stated in a request for information form is incorrect or incomplete and where there is a change in the status of the case, claim, application, etc., noted in a request for information form, or if an additional case, claim, is filed with any court, bureau, board, commission or agency. The sanctions stated in Civil Rule 37(B)(1) may be assessed for failure to timely comply with this rule.

(C) Duty of resident attorney; service of papers; attorney fees. Where leave has been granted under this rule, the attorney at law of this state shall examine and cosign all motions, pleadings and other papers prepared by the nonresident attorney. The nonresident attorney shall not appear at oral hearings in the absence of the attorney at law of this state.

Service of orders, motions, pleadings and any other papers upon the nonresident attorney shall be upon the attorney at law of this state.

(D) Scheduling for a continuance of any trial or hearing date shall not be permitted solely because of the unavailability of or inconvenience to out-of-state counsel.

RULE 18. Conditions for broadcasting and photographing Court of Claims proceedings
